Cancellation

A 24-hour notice is required for cancellation of an appointment, if you cancel and reschedule less than 24 hours you will need to pay in full before your next appointment to be seen. I ask that you respect this is a business and my time is valuable as is yours. I understand things come up yet understand this in an investment in yourself.

If you cancel twice consecutively, I will ask you to prepay for the following appointment.

Tardiness and Financial Responsibility

Appointment times are as scheduled and cannot extend beyond the stated time to accommodate late arrivals. Please be on time for your appointment. You will be responsible for the full price of the session, even if you are late. You are responsible for payment of services rendered regardless of the amount of time.

Sickness

Massage/bodywork is not appropriate care for infectious or contagious illnesses. Please cancel your appointment as soon as you are aware of an infectious or contagious condition. Again, I ask that you respect and value both your and mine health and not come in if you are sick. If you arrive and it is clear you are in no condition to receive a message, I reserve the right to cancel the appointment.

Please note: Communication is key if you feel any discomfort or pain, please inform your massage therapist immediately. Also understand that massage/bodywork should not be construed as a substitute for medical examination, diagnosis, or treatment and that I should see a physician, chiropractor, or another qualified medical specialist for any mental or physical ailment of which I am aware.
